

Henry Lee

b. 1981, Singapore

A Song About Saturn, 2019

Charcoal and Acrylic on Canvas

H 76.2 x 101.4 cm

In the song 'Single Ladies', Beyoncé chimes:

"Cause if you like it, then you should've put a ring on it."

If every relationship were to be symbolised by a ring, how many can we wear in a lifetime? People, like rings, come and go. Sometimes we let them go, sometimes we lose them and sometimes they are taken away from us. If Saturn were a person, I wonder how he feels about the myriad rings he bears?