

Soh Ee Shaun

b. 1980, Singapore

In a rush but I'll wait for you, 2015

Pastels on Paper
H 50 x 70 cm

This work marks a bold shift towards the abstract, expressing - in his own words - 'the transmission of energy and ideas through spacetime, and the multiplicities of energetic visuals using colour and form on a plane surface.' 'In a Rush But I'll Wait For You' describes the frantic pace of everyday life, but also the important message of slowing down for those around us.