

Nurlisa Ho

b. 1989, Singapore

Introspection #1, #2 & #3

2022

Organza silk ribbons on stretched canvas

61 x 61 cm (each)

'Intervention' is a mesmerizing artwork that brings together a mix of conflict, inspiration, integration, and interference, all beautifully entwined within its intricate lines and forms. The artist's clever use of Organza silk ribbons adds a touch of magic, infusing the piece with an undeniable energy that visually captures its profound depth. The linear abstractions create a sense of motion and tension, inviting viewers to dive in and connect with the artwork on an intellectual and emotional level.

With 'Intervention,' the artist fearlessly challenges traditional ideas and encourages us to reflect on the transformative power of disruption. This artwork takes us on a visual journey, exploring the complex interplay of conflicting energies, leaving us intrigued and pondering countless interpretations. It's an invitation to delve into the extraordinary and embrace the unexpected.

