Subtle Investigations into Complexity of my Mind,
2014

Acrylic on Canvas
H 76 x 76 cm

This work marks a bold shift towards the abstract, expressing - in his own words - 'the transmission of energy and ideas through spacetime, and the multiplicities of energetic visuals using colour and form on a plane surface.' 'Subtle Investigations into Complexity of my Mind' describes Ee Shaun's approach to abstraction and painting as a meditative activity, being present and accepting of all flaws and thoughts that appear during the painting process.
