

Sonny Liew

b. 1975, Singapore

The Pandemic Cookbook, 2022

by Hsu Li Yang and Sonny Liew
Epigram Books

When COVID-19 started to spread around the world in early 2020, Singapore's readiness to deal with a global pandemic, wise decisions and missteps along the way, while questions about scientific consensus, trade-offs and vaccines swirled about in the media. The Pandemic Cookbook revisits those early days of unprecedented global disruption, including social distancing, dormitory lockdowns, elections and TraceTogether controversies.

Based on interviews with front-line workers, journalists, policymakers, academics, migrant workers and more, infectious disease expert and Eisner-winning graphic novelist Sonny Liew present a unique recollection of Singapore's pandemic experience.

"[A] brilliant book telling the story of Singapore's fight against COVID 19."

- Professor Tommy Koh, Former Chairman of the National Art Council